Dear ~~Miss~~ ~~Kang~~

Your Free Standing Additional Voluntary Contribution Plan Policy Number [REDACTED]

Further to previous correspondence we've now completed our investigation into your complaint about the sale of your Teachers Assurance Free Standing Additional Voluntary Contribution Plan (FSAVC).

We previously concluded that your complaint should be upheld and this letter sets out the offer we now wish to make. The offer is in accordance with the principles and assumptions laid down by the Financial Services Authority (FSA) (now the Financial Conduct Authority), during the industry wide review of FSAVC plan sales and as recognised by the Financial Ombudsman Service.

We offer to compensate you by:

- A lump sum, payable to you, of £27,004.34 as at the calculation date of 1 April 2020 plus interest to the date of settlement.

Our offer is made on the assumption that the only FSAVC policy you held was with Teachers Assurance/LV=. If this is not the case please let us know immediately as this offer may not be appropriate to your circumstances.

Our calculations have been based on various assumptions as to your own personal details and the benefits offered by the Added Years arrangement in the Teachers Pension Scheme. These assumptions are listed in the attached Appendix 1, which you should read. If you believe that any of these assumptions are inappropriate or incorrect please let me know as soon as possible.

Dear [REDACTED]

We will pay you compensation

- We agree that you have a valid claim against [REDACTED] (the Firm) regarding your Free-Standing Additional Voluntary Contribution (FSAVC) policy.
- This means we can pay you £37,934.41 in compensation.

How we worked out your payment

We have calculated your total loss as £38,816.01. Our compensation limits don't allow us to pay more than £48,000 per customer, per firm.

For investment claims against firms that were declared in default before 1st January 2010, the limit is £48,000 (100% of the first £30,000 and 90% of the next £20,000), per investor, per firm.

Amount we are able to pay under our rules	£37,934.41
---	------------

We'll send a cheque payable to [REDACTED], as you requested. You should receive the payment within 10 working days of the date at the top of this letter. You might need to pay some tax on it, depending on your income and circumstances. You can check this by talking to HMRC or a tax adviser.

Any questions?

If you have any questions or concerns about the decision or the payment, please contact us using the details at the top of this letter. We'll be happy to help.

I wish to accept the offer set out in your letter dated 13 March 2020, of a payment to me by direct bank transfer of £61,445.84.

I give my consent for this payment to be paid directly into my bank account. I enclose an original bank statement (paper or printed online statement) dated within the last six months to confirm the account details. I/We understand that if this is a joint account, the other account holder(s) will have access to the cash sum offered.

This is on the basis that such an offer is accepted in full and final settlement of all or any claims which I might have against the Royal Bank of Scotland, or any subsidiary companies, in respect of my [REDACTED] FSAVC number [REDACTED]

I am not (and have not been in the last 12 months) subject to any alternative financial arrangement, such as a bankruptcy, sequestration, individual voluntary arrangement (IVA) or trust deed.

IMPORTANT: I understand and agree that if my acceptance of offer is given on or after 13 June 2020 the sum detailed above will be subject to recalculation so could be more or less than £61,445.84.

Dear [REDACTED]

Review of Personal Pensions – Barclays Additional Wealth Plan (FSAVC) [REDACTED]

I refer to your complaint about the advice received from ReAssure (formerly Barclays Life) concerning your FSAVC pension arrangements.

We have investigated your complaint regarding the advice you received to take out a FSAVC plan rather than join the Teachers' Pension Scheme's in-house AVC arrangement. We have established that the potential benefits from your FSAVC plan are less than the value of the benefits that you would have received if you had become a member of the in-house AVC arrangements.

I am pleased to inform you that we have completed a loss assessment on behalf of ReAssure, in line with the guidance laid down by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA). Under these guidelines, your FSAVC pension arrangements are less beneficial than the in-house AVC Scheme benefits would have been and this letter sets out how it is proposed to put this right.

If you wish to accept this offer, please sign and return the enclosed acceptance form using the envelope provided. A copy of the acceptance form is enclosed for you to retain for your own records. Upon receiving your acceptance, we shall forward this to ReAssure to action the offer of redress as quickly as possible. You should be aware that by accepting this offer you will not be able to bring any further claim against ReAssure concerning this matter.

The regulator's guidelines say that total reinstatement of benefits in the scheme is usually the most appropriate form of redress. The trustees of the Teachers' Pension Scheme will not permit reinstatement of your benefits within the scheme so our offer is as follows:-

- To pay a lump sum of £35,224.42 as at 1 April 2019 [REDACTED]
